Peking Pavilion at 2912 North Sycamore Street, Arlington, Virginia 22207 will change hands on March 1, 2023. The new operator is Hien T. Quach, a relative of the sellers Mrs. Ann Truong and her brother Kiet Truong. Mr. Quach is an experienced restaurant professional. The business name will remain the same and a renovation is planned. Mrs. Truong will remain for time to insure a smooth transition.

In 1985, Peking Pavilion opened at the Williamsburg Shopping Center located at Williamsburg Boulevard and North Sycamore Street. Mrs. Truong and her brother purchased the business on January 1, 1988 – they have been operating this business here continuously for 35 years. All in all the restaurant has been a steady presence at our center for nearly 40 years.

The landlord has sincerely thanked the brother and sister partners for their long service to this community and for their long business relationship with us.
